5. Director and Deputy Director Reports
[Name] noted that he’d like to update the set of interview questions UBS hold and asked for new questions to be sent to him along with which grade they relate to.

[Name] thanked all those who have been involved in safe space inspections in the facilities, they went well with a small number of minor action points. It has been noted that some people are still wearing alternative RPE instead of FFP3 or powered respirators. Face fit testing can now take place and the Safety Office should be contacted to arrange this.

There is a global shortage of nitrile gloves and the University is struggling to secure supplies. If a procedure or process is being carried out that does not require nitrile gloves, others can be used if available. The University’s supply is also being used by the Covid Testing Centre.

[Name] noted that the University has nitrile gloves he can share.

[Name] and her team were thanked for their hard work on the PIL reviews.

[Name] noted that [Name] would be making visits on 2nd December.

No notifications have been received from [Name] about planned facility visits. When inspectors visit a site they will need the most up to date entrance information for Covid controls.

Pre-compliance letters have been received from the Home Office, [Name] and [Name] have responded.
asked for the NACWOs to check their own records on ASPeL if they have a Personal Licence and to ensure their records are up to date. After the first 200 project licences have been put through the new ASPeL system a review is required. This mark has now been reached so a review will take place in 2021.

A query was raised at an ASRU meeting regarding the process if a technician contracts Covid-19. This happened at a different institution and the decision was made locally to continue working normally. Wearing PPE in a well-managed work space kept the risk of transmission to a minimum. If this happens in Cambridge the local authorities would have to be consulted and therefore it is sensible to keep the systems being used written up in a document which can be provided easily.
